1. On 3 February 1954, the Artillerie Kaserne, Perleberg, was occupied to capacity by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including 25 percent with artillery insignia and 25 percent with tank insignia. About 100 to 120 troops engaged in marching, training in firing and physical training at the drill ground. At about 10:30 a.m., about 30 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery insignia, and carrying gas-defense equipment were seen leaving the installation.

2. On 3 February, about 20 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank insignia, entered the Fliegerhorst Kaserne. About 180 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets received instruction, including throwing of hand grenades, in the training area south of the road to Wittenberge. Reports of machine guns were heard from the adjoining firing range.
